FAREWELL RECEPTION IN CHURCH AUDITORIUM TO DR. JOS. A. BENNETT

Three Hundred Pay Respects to Man Who Has Been a Potent Factor in the Uplift of Newark

PRESENTED WITH HANDSOME REMEMBRANCES

Heads of Civic, Military and Religious Organizations
Pay Splendid Compliments to Resigned Minister
Who Will Soon Leave for New Field of Labor at Sistersville, W. Va.—Dr.
Bennett's Farewell Address.

To those who on Monday night attended the farewell reception tendered to Dr. Joseph A. Bennett, pastor of the Fifth street Baptist church on the eve of his departure for Sistersville, W. Va., where he has accepted a charge, the well known expression in Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet," takes on new meaning. "Parting is such sweet sorrow, That I shall say good night till it be morning."

says the poet, and in the valedictory address of the man that has endeared himself to the hearts of the people of Newark there is found this same consolation—that there is to be a morrow, and that in his activities of tomorrow there is the basis for a continued rejoicing, in the successes of the future there is warrant for the continued interest of those who know and love Joseph A. Bennett.

About three hundred persons gathered in the auditorium of the Fifth Street church to pay tribute to their resigned pastor. Representatives of various civic and religious activities with which Dr. Bennett has been identified during the seven years of his pastorate comprised the list of speakers on the evening's program, and at the request of Prof. C. L. Williams, of the department of English literature at Denison University, told the congregation of the vast influence of Dr. Bennett's life on the progress of the community.

Rev. Mr. L. C. Sparks of the First M. E. church represented the Minister's Association of Newark, and related the splendid breadth of theological vision possessed by Dr. Bennett, and his consistent efforts in the upbuilding of the organization. The pastor was characterized as a man of firm convictions, and absolutely fearless in the performance of what he considered his duty. And this was the great unanimous expression of those who appeared later on the program—that he was fearless in his convictions, but a man throughout.

The relation of Dr. Bennett to the development of the local Young Men's Christian Association was told in an admirable manner by E. S. Randolph, following which Hon. T. B. Fulton, one of the staunch supporters of Dr. Bennett and his principles, bespoke on the behalf of the "Brotherhood of Men," the brotherly attitude of the pastor. In the departure of Dr. Bennett he found the one consolation that his absence may cause men and women to rely more implicitly on the guidance of that other elder brother, the Son of the Most High, for the development of the community for good.

A Minister at Large.
The Board of Trade was represented by Mr. C. H. Spencer, who told of the energy, acumen and reliability of Dr. Bennett in the various movements fostered by that body. His addresses during the membership campaign, his labors in behalf of the hospital fund and other civic desires, and the import of his contact with the business men of the city, where his sermons had an audience of but one, two or half a dozen men, but were fraught with inestimable good, were all examples of his fidelity to the city's good. Mr. Spencer, in closing his remarks, quoted from an address delivered by Attorney Carl Norpell at the banquet recently tendered Dr. Bennett by business men of the city, stating:

Powell, whose work with the Lyon evangelistic party has won her many friends in this city. Mrs. Powell's solo "Laddie," was beautiful in its expression and sung with the finest of artistic interpretation that could possibly be accorded the charming number.

Dr. Bennett's faithfulness in the duties of his church was the theme of a brief address by Owen A. Nash, at the close of which Henry A. Miller, of the Law and Order League, paid a fitting and splendidly expressed (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

OHIO STATE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION HOLDING ANNUAL SESSIONS HERE

With a large number of delegates present, and more arriving by every train, the annual sessions of the Ohio State Library association opened at the High School Auditorium last evening. The session was attended by a number of Newark citizens who are vitally interested in the library project, and these found in the discussions of the evening much to increase their faith and belief that Newark cannot much longer remain without increased library facilities. The fact that a state-wide organization has been willing to come to Newark, which can boast of only a small library, and give to it the benefit of years of experience in library work should work for the advancement of the greatest intellectual project that has ever confronted the city—the building of a substantial public library and the development of equipment for the same that will enable Newark to be considered the equal of other library-owning communities.

The address of welcome was extended by Mr. Charles W. Montgomery, president of the Board of Trustees of the Newark Public Library, and was a hearty and cordial invitation to the visitors to make known their wants and feel perfectly at home.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said Mr. Montgomery, after he had noted that a half dozen or more men of the city had shown their interest in the library movement by attending the session, "It is with considerable pleasure that I appear here tonight on behalf of the board of trustees of the Newark Public Library to extend a welcome to those of you who are here, and incidentally to the few people of the city of Newark, who by their coming have expressed their interest in this movement, and especially to you who come from other cities to confer with one another and with us, or rather to confer upon us the honor of discussing a matter which is of great interest to us."

"As I understand it, I am not expected to make a speech tonight. It is merely that I shall extend a welcome. I cannot extend to you the keys of the city of Newark, because they are not in my keeping, but I can say that the people of Newark are glad that you are here. Those of us who are interested in this library project feel the honor of your being here."

"This town of Newark is a good town, in spite of any disparagements that may be made against it, and those who live here love it, and are glad to call it home. As you are here for a few days, we hope and believe that you will form the conclusion that there is no better city and that there are no better people in all Ohio.

"We have a little library which is growing bigger, which is now meeting a demand, and which we trust will be, in a few years, a real force in this community. This library has been developed in spite of great opposition and against great difficulty, but by the force of a few men and more ladies, with the encouragement and support of two newspapers, with the untiring efforts of a capable librarian and corps of assistants, a library whom we are all delighted to honor, to whose honest efficiency we all pay tribute, this library becomes a real fact."

"We are glad that you are here because of this work in which many of you are engaged, in which we are all interested."

"A public library is a thing apart. It doesn't meet any physical desire, but administrators to the mind and perhaps to the spirit and soul. It is the means whereby any person can acquire knowledge of the thought of all people of all lands and all times whose actions are worthy of consideration. It is a chance afforded to the humblest seeker, though he comes without money and without price, obtain a glimpse of the vision and the work of the master minds of all the ages."

"It is a glorious work. It is a thing apart. That is my conception of it, and with these few remarks, I again bid you welcome."

Gives Charming Response.

The response to the address of welcome was made by Miss Caroline Burville of Cleveland, president of the State Library Association, who in a very charming manner told of the desire of the library association to visit the smaller cities of the state and finally asked Newark for permission to hold the 1912 sessions in this city. "The response was so cordial that our humble request for permission was changed into a most hearty invitation, for which we thank you," she added.

The address by Mrs. Pauline Steinman, of the board of trustees of the Toledo public library, proved an able discussion of the development of women from the earliest times to the present day. Mrs. Steinman has been a force in the women's clubs of the state and her participation in the Newark session was a very pleasing compliment to the club women of this city who were instrumental in securing her.

At the close of Mrs. Steinman's address, a reception was held in the upper hall of the High school building, which had been pleasingly decorated with ivy and flowers. Members of local women's organizations assisted in the serving of light refreshments and extended once more to the visiting librarians a most cordial welcome.

Those "Friendly Books."
This morning's sessions were held at the Trinity Parish house, and were opened by an address by Miss G. M. Walton, librarian of the Michigan State Normal School at Ypsilanti, Mich. Miss Walton took as her theme "Friendly Books," and admirably de-

BATTLE MAY BEGIN TODAY

The Mexican government has assured the United States that will do so.

MASONS WILL ATTEND THE LYON REVIVAL CAMPAIGN AT TABERNACLE TONIGHT

7:00—Song service and mass meeting, attended by delegation of over 300 Masons from Newark and vicinity. Dr. Lyon will preach on "Not Far From the Kingdom."

9:00 a. m.—Neighborhood prayer meetings.
12:00 M.—Noon luncheon for business men at First Presbyterian church. Dr. Lyon will speak.

2:30 p. m.—Sermon at the tabernacle, by Dr. Lyon.
7:00 p. m.—Song service and mass meeting at the tabernacle. Dr. Lyon will preach on "The Christian Soldier." Mrs. Powell will sing at all services.

Tonight promises to be one of the most interesting in the Lyon revival campaign, not only because it will witness the beginning of the final two weeks of the campaign, but because it will be marked by the attendance of over three hundred of Newark's fraternity members—adherents to the principles of Masonry who have asked that a special night be set aside for them.

The entire front center section has been reserved for this leading organization and responses to the call for attendance at the meeting show that interest in the service is almost universal.

The services this week will have many interesting features. Tomorrow afternoon Dr. Lyon will continue his afternoon sermons, and it is anticipated that large crowds will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the noted evangelist in his scathing arraignment of sin and his pleadings for the acceptance of salvation.

On Thursday, "Mother's Day," is to be observed, Dr. Lyon having requested every man and woman away from home to write a letter home to mother and wear a red carnation, or if mother is dead, to wear a white carnation. The services on Thursday will be especially commemorative of the motherly love and care that is dear to the heart of every one whether he has ever accepted the gospel of Christ or not.

Great Parade Arranged.
The committee on arrangements for the mammoth parade for Monday evening, October 29th, of the city and country churches, fraternal and labor organizations met last night at the Young Men's Christian Association to formulate definite plans for carrying out the project. The parade, as roughly planned, will be made up as follows: Band, police guard, old guard, labor organizations, high school, band, country churches, city churches and Y. M. C. A. A number of the churches of the city will be represented by floats and other organizations are urged to follow their example. The delegations will meet before the Sherwood hotel at 8:30 o'clock. It will not leave this point until the B. & O. trains arrive with delegations from the north and west.

The line of march will be west around the south side of square and on West Main to the tabernacle. Services will be planned especially for these delegations. Those coming on the trains will be permitted to leave for outgoing trains at 9:00 o'clock. J. H. Miller is chairman of the committee to work up the country delegations, all communications from the country should be directed to him. The committee on parade and local arrangements is composed of the following men: A. R. Evans, A. S. Mitchell, M. A. Lamp, F. E. Toljowar, R. C. Armstrong, and E. Johnson. For further information about the parade phone Mr. Johnson, the chairman of the committee, at the Y. M. C. A.

A Great Noon Meeting.
Nearly two hundred business men were served at the luncheon at the First Presbyterian church today, prepared by the ladies of the United Brethren church, and arrangements will be made for the increasing of facilities for handling the crowds.

CLEVELAND WINS IN LITIGATION OF LONG STANDING
Columbus, Oct. 22.—The city of Cleveland, after 19 years of litigation, was today declared the owner of 51 acres of land on which the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad has erected stations and a network of tracks, valued at several millions of dollars. The railroad will probably appeal to the United States Supreme court.

Dr. Lyon Issues Call to Action

Newark, October 22, 1912.

To the People of Newark:

A battle is on in Newark which will doubtless decide in a large measure the spiritual fate of this community for a generation. It is not a propaganda for any particular church, but a united effort to bring men and women to acknowledge allegiance to Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord. The gospel of Christ admits of no neutrality. You are either for or against. If it is false, oppose it. If it is true, accept and promote it. If friends were in physical danger, how great would be your anxiety for their safety. How much greater should be your concern for their spiritual and eternal salvation. The life away from Christ is lost. Time is lost, influence lost, soul lost. Get right with God yourself, not only for your own sake but also that your example and influence may help to lead some other to the light. We rejoice that already in this campaign many have begun the Christian life. A most favorable beginning for a great revival has been made. Let everyone who loves God and man lay aside every hindrance, confident of victory and move forward to fulfill the watch-word, "Newark for Christ."

Yours for service.

ROOSEVELT STOOD THE TRIP WELL

Arrived Back Home at Oyster Bay This Morning

DICTATES A MESSAGE

Stating That He Is Feeling Fine
---Must Have Full Week's Rest.

Syosset, L. I., Oct. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt and party arrived here at 9:30 o'clock this morning. This place, four miles from Oyster Bay, was chosen as his routing point to avoid meeting a large crowd. Colonel Roosevelt walked unassisted to a waiting automobile and was driven to Oyster Bay, waving his hat to the villagers at the Syosset station and assuring them that he was "feeling fine, just fine."

To the town folks at Oyster Bay, who were a bit surprised when they did not see Col. Roosevelt at the station, he sent the following message, through his physicians: "I stood the trip well and am feeling fine." His physicians corroborated this and added: "We believe him in no condition to stand the excitement of receiving his many friends at Oyster Bay."

After a conference with the doctors, George E. Roosevelt said: "Colonel Roosevelt must have a week of absolute rest. If he has this rest he possibly will be able to make the Madison Square Garden address. If he does not get it, he will probably be unable to make the speech."

The colonel was eating his breakfast when the train pulled into the New York station at 8:08. He had risen early and was fully dressed, and made a hearty meal of eggs, bacon, tea, and bread and butter.

In accordance with plans previously arranged there was no demonstration in the station. In fact, all persons were barred from the train shed except members of the family. The only ones who joined the party were Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, the latter a sister of Colonel Roosevelt, and George E. Roosevelt.

The colonel's special car and the car of the physician and newspaper men was quickly detached and started for Oyster Bay.

Doctors Lambert and Tyrrell said that the colonel's wound was oozing some, but that he was in excellent condition. They issued the following bulletin:

Colonel Roosevelt is very cheerful after a good night's sleep. He is feeling very well and has stood the journey very well.

"Alexander Lambert,

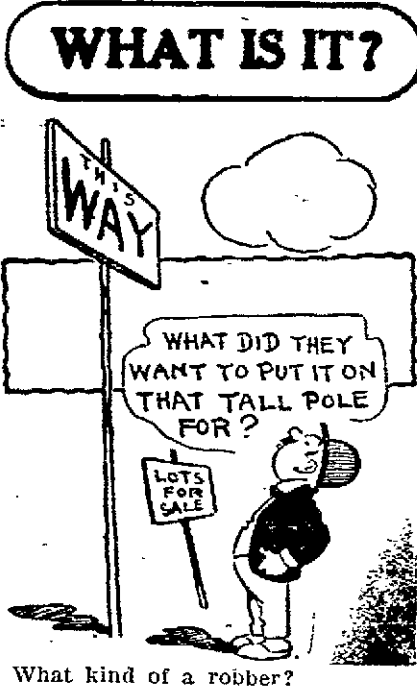

"Scurry L. Terrell."
Colonel Roosevelt and his secretaries were busy on the train until late in the night looking for an old speech of the colonel's on the trusts. This speech has been the basis of recent criticism by William J. Bryan and after a secretary had unearthed it and Colonel Roosevelt had gone over it, he said he intended to reply to Mr. Bryan's criticism either in a statement or in a speech.

BULL MOOSE SPECIAL ON LONG TRIP

Columbus, Oct. 22.—The majority of the men on the progressive ticket of the state left Columbus today on a special campaign trip over the state. It will not be completed until a few days before election. Today's itinerary includes Delaware, Marion, Bucyrus, Tiffin, Fostoria, Fremont and a night meeting at Toledo. The special train will travel 3,200 miles in 11 days and make 35 stops.

BOOKKEEPER IDENTIFIES THE CHECKS

Indianapolis, Oct. 22.—Federal Judge A. B. Anderson today signified that the scope of the dynamic conspiracy investigation would be widened, when he permitted the taking of evidence of explosions by foremen of various jobs. In spite of objections by United States Senator J. W. Kern that the evidence was not relevant, the contention of District Attorney Charles W. Miller was sustained, and it was further held that any overt act could be used to show a motive for the conspiracy, despite the statute of limitations.

ed tribute to the energy and conscientiousness of Dr. Bennett's work in that organization during the strenuous times of the liquor fight, recounting the friendly spirit that Dr. Bennett manifested toward the men whose business he was opposed to, a spirit that was so evident that today even those most radically opposed to his religious principles are glad and proud to call him "friend."

A Declaration of Independence

The climax of the evening was Dr. Bennett's farewell address to the people, in which, with his voice low with suppressed emotion, he told of his faith in his Master and the fidelity which he had tried to maintain in his church activities.

"My friends, this is a time for feeling, instead of expression," he said. "What manner of man would I be if down in my heart there was not a hearty and loving response of gratitude to the men for these very kind and generous words that we have heard tonight."

"I shall go out of town with a smile on my face, but with sorrow in my heart."

"I was born, and lived in Philadelphia over forty-eight years. I had preached in every Baptist church of the 110, and in many other churches besides. I have preached as often as 355 times in a single year. I was secretary of the minister's conference of three hundred preachers for a long period of years. My mother's family was there, and my brothers and sisters and their children. It was hard to leave Philadelphia and come here, but I came here. I did not come as a candidate seeking an office. I have never sought a pulpit. I have never written a letter or pulled a wire. I came because I thought God wanted me to come, and I remember saying to you people the night I was received, that I came because God wanted me to come, but if you would let me know the minute you thought I ought to leave this field, I was ready to go."

"I have kept my promise. The very first intimation that came to me that the time had come for me to cease my work here, I tendered my resignation."

"It will be harder for me to leave Newark than it was to leave Philadelphia. I have felt that I was right where God wanted me to be. I have been interested in all of the affairs of this city, county and state. In a way for which I devoutly bless God, he has given me a large place, and no matter where I shall go, to the end of time I shall never lose the vision of Spencer and Sparks or the men of the Board of Trade or the Y. M. C. A. and the various institutions of the town."

"They will be with me always and forevermore. They will be hard to forget—yes, they will be impossible to forget."

Will Help All Men.

"And now, my friends, I have been talking about tonight. I suppose all these preachers believe as I do that the kingdom of God is a greater and mightier institution than any church or combination of churches. It is greater than this Baptist denomination, greater than the Methodist, greater than all the denominations."

"The Kingdom of God is the end, the churches are the means to the end. The Kingdom of God is the temple being reared, the church is the scaffold around about it."

"I felt that my call was to the ministry of the Kingdom of God, and there never has been and never will be a time when I will confine myself to the walls of any one church or denomination."

"I always have been and always will be willing and ready to reach out to a brother's hand to the men of other faiths, and when we finally come up to the great white throne there will be no Baptists or Methodists or Presbyterians or Disciples there, — but simply the children of a common God."

"For that kingdom I toil, for that kingdom I live and for that kingdom I would die. Other instrumentalities than the church are in the hands of God for the advancing of His kingdom. That accounts for the wideness of my reach and for the interest that I have in all that pertains to mankind."

"When I heard my call it was not from a Baptist or Presbyterian council, a conference or a synod. It was not from any denomination or many denominations. My call was from the King of Kings. To Him I owe allegiance. I believe in the Lordship of Jesus Christ. I take orders from no man, no board of deacons, no board of trustees and no church. The Lord Jesus Christ is my commander-in-chief."

Start Your Baby With Sound Health

Regular Bowel Movement From Childhood On Foretells Future Serious Diseases.

We cannot all start life with the advantages of money, but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health. Through unfortunate ignorance or carelessness in the feeding of a baby, its tiny stomach may become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the baby's chief or only source of comfort and health depend on causing it great suffering. If the condition is allowed to continue, grave ailments often result.

There is, however, no occasion for alarm, and the sensible thing to do—but it should be done instantly—is to give the baby a small dose of a mild laxative-remedy. In the opinion of a great many people among them such well known persons as Mrs. E. C. Parmelee, mother of Master Parmelee, Highlands, N. J., and Mr. Chas. S. Freeman, Mattapoisett, Mass., the proper remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a pleasant-tasting laxative, which even a person likes. It is mild, non-gripping and contains "that most excellent of all digestants" pepsin.

This remedy is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others to whom harsh cathartics, salt waters, pills, etc., are distressing. In fact, in the common disorders of life, such as constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, biliousness, headaches and the various other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, nothing is more suitable than this mild laxative-remedy, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Two generations of people are using it today, and thousands of families keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the size bought by families who already know its value.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way—a postal card will do—Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 412 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

and to Him I owe allegiance.

Toiling Amid the Stains.

"Seven years I have been here. They have been sweet and happy years. A man that toils in dyes will find his fingers stained with the colors. A man that labors in perfumes will find his clothes bearing away the fragrance. I shall go away from this city with the stain on my fingers. I shall go away with the fragrance on my clothes."

"During these seven years I have been gathering roses, seven of them in all. I have seen the petals fall one by one. Oh, yes, I have seen the blood stain several times as among the roses I have found three or four thorns, but I have tossed the thorns to one side, and the wounds were healed, and the fragrance of the rose will go with me wherever I go."

"The rose is sweet. I will not forget its beauty. I will never lose the fragrance that they have given me, all my life."

"I have tried to be faithful to my brethren in the ministry and outside, and at the same time I have tried to be faithful to this church. I have been in this church seven years. I have been out of this pulpit, on my own accord but once every year, an average of once. Every other time it was either my right to be out of the pulpit or I was commissioned by the church to do some task. During these seven years I have been out of the prayer services but three times on my own account each year, and only three. I have not neglected the work of my own community."

"I do not know that I should be receiving so much praise for the work I have been doing. It was a joy to me. I cannot help it. It is easier to be kind than unkind. It is easier to toil than not to toil. It is easier to fight than to stand back and let others do the fighting. I am not that kind of a man."

"And now I am going to West Virginia. There are some things in this city that I can never forget. Mr. Spencer called your attention to some of those things. Those men at that business men's banquet that night offered to pay my entire salary if I would stay here in the city of Newark."

"I have been stopped time and again on the streets of Newark by leading business men, and they have said these things, 'Mr. Bennett, I am sorry you are going away. You are not a rich man. It costs money to move. If you need any money, come to me and I will let you have all you need.' Time and again these business men have said that."

Will Open the Lyon Tabernacle.

"That's the kind of treatment I have been receiving, and I am going to tell you that I am not going to lose sight of these people. I am not going to lose sight of the Lyon crowd, why, I'm going to preach the first sermon in the big tabernacle in Parkersburg for them."

"My call to Sistersville said to me, 'Mr. Bennett, we do not want a local man, simply a pastor for this church. We want a state-wide man, a man that will touch our whole state, and you can go where you please in all the state.' And again they said, 'We know you are evangelistic and want to help folks into the kingdom of God,' and they put that into the call and told me to go wherever I wanted to go on evangelistic trips. I wanted a man who is willing to touch our state," they said, but I would have tried to do that anyhow."

"I have been treated royally here and shown many expressions of love, and some of the finest people in the kingdom of God belong right here in this Fifth Street Baptist church. I am coming back."

"I have noted one thing—I have always noted it. They have given one word for Mr. Bennett and two words for his wife and children. I suppose if it wasn't for that kind of a family I wouldn't be able to keep a church a minute. I am glad that you have spoken so well of this woman that has taken care of me in this pulpit. Over in the tabernacle the other night I saw my Margaret and Sarah and George doing personal work. It was impossible for Jane to be engaged in that work at that time, but these children were doing personal work for God. And my father's heart rejoiced, and I said, 'That's just like my Father above. He does like to see his children doing personal work and getting other children into the kingdom.'

Gifts for the Bennetts.

Dr. Bennett's address was received amid an applause that bore a strange tenor, and the feelings of his hearers were best shown when, after a handsome davenport and rocker were presented to his wife and him, with various gifts from the First Division of the Ladies' Aid Society and choir to Mrs. Bennett and members of the family, every one in the building remained to grasp the hand of the man who has been such a potent power in the development of Newark's best interests. More than half of the church membership was included in the list of those who were interested in the farewell gifts, and Dr. Bennett happily referred to it as his "diploma, gained after seven years of service, and signed by the faculty of the church."

"I don't know what I'll do with those things," he said, pointing to the davenport and rocker. "I think I'll take them down to Sistersville and put a nice motto over them, something like, 'Come unto Me, and I will give thee rest.'"

"I hope I won't have to go and rest on that thing very often. It carries with it the suggestion that the energy of which you spoke a little while ago is beginning to wane."

There was a quiver of sympathy in the pastor's voice, however, as he declared his appreciation of the gifts and called on the members of his family to "make little speeches."

In happy expression, they told of their love for the friends with whom they have labored the last seven years, and extended cordial invitations to "come down to Sistersville and see us."

The general reception was held in the parlors of the church, where Dr. Bennett and his family bade farewell to the guests of the evening, and where, by no means the least important phase of the evening's entertainment—the ladies of the church served light refreshments.

Cheneyville, La.—"Some time ago when in poor health, suffering from female ill, I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. I soon felt better and gained in strength and flesh. A gradual improvement continued as I took the Compound, and from 120 pounds I now weigh 155, and feel that my life has been prolonged."

"I deeply regret that I did not know of your medicine long before I did. Friends often speak of the wonderful change in my health, and I tell them that your medicine did it."—Mrs. J. W. STANLEY, Cheneyville, La.

Distressing Case of Mrs. M. Gary.

Chicago, Ill.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache and it has certainly made a new woman of me. After my first baby was born I was left a perfect wreck. I was so weak I could hardly do my household duties and suffered with an awful backache. But since I have used your Compound the pains in my back have left me and I am strong again."

"My mother used it also through Change of Life and speaks very highly of it. You can use this letter any way you wish. I think it is only fair for one who has suffered as much as I, to let others know of your great remedy."—Mrs. M. GARY, 2958 N. Ridgeway Ave., Chicago, Ill.

PRAYS COURT TO APPOINT A RECEIVER

Complicated Affairs of The Nickarator Bologna Distill Co.—Court News.

By his attorney, Charles H. Follett, John Trik, on behalf of himself and the other creditors of The Nickarator Bologna Distill Manufacturing company, has filed a suit against the company, Spurgeon Applegate, Dregies Apson and John A. Thompson.

The petition recites that the company owned a lot in Riverside addition and on July 12, 1912, started the erection of a plant, of which the defendant Spurgeon Applegate was appointed builder. The work was stopped after the completion of the foundation because of lack of funds through the failure to sell the stock in the concern.

On September 23 a resolution was passed that the executive committee sell the property to wind up the affairs of the company.

The plaintiff avers that at this time Spurgeon Applegate stated that he had a purchaser for the property and that enough could be realized to pay the indebtedness of the company, but that the sale would have to be made through him. In view of this the directors and stockholders made him the trustee and made a deed to him for $1 and other considerations.

Trik claims that Dregies Apson, the purchaser, knew all the circumstances and that he was scheming to get possession of the lot and the foundation at less than its real value for the purpose of erecting a building, and that he had engaged the defendant Applegate to build it.

The petitioner states that Applegate now asserts that the sum realized from the sale is not sufficient to settle the debts of the distill company. Trik, the plaintiff, now asks that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the affairs of the company, that the purchaser of the real estate be required to pay the debts of the company and that the deed from the company to Applegate and from him to Apson be declared null and void and cancelled of record.

QUICKLY CURES THE WORST BACKACHE

New Remedy Makes Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders and Rheumatic Pains Disappear, as if by Magic.

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with backache, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders to contend with, or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely cures all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principle of removing the cause. Pills, tablets and other remedies, at the best, merely stimulate the kidneys, giving temporary relief. Croxone cleans out the poisons.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings, like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principle of Croxone is such, that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

PROMINENT REPUBLICANS FOR WILSON

Indications of a large number of republicans who will vote for Wilson November 5th, was seen in a list of republicans of national reputation who are campaigning for Governor Wilson, issued at the headquarters of the Wilson national progressive republican league in Chicago. The list is as follows:

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist of the United States department of Agriculture.

Rudolph Spreckles, president of the league, who fought graft in San Francisco.

United States Senator John D. Works of California.

Senator John J. Blain of Wisconsin.

Jacob Schiff, the noted banker-philanthropist of New York.

Claus A. Spreckles the California sugar refiner who has spent a fortune and fifteen years in fighting the sugar trust.

John D. Spreckles, publisher of the San Francisco Call.

Wallace Bachelder, former Third Term party state chairman in Vermont.

Dr. J. N. Hurty, health officer of Indiana.

Dr. William Jay Schlefflin, philanthropist.

Charles R. Crane, Chicago capitalist, and former supporter of Senator La Follette.

Raymond B. Fosdick, former commissioner of public accounts, New York.

John B. Rathorn, publisher of the Providence (R.I.) Journal.

Rev. Madison C. Peters, New York reformer.

Erman J. Ridgway, publisher Everybody's Magazine, Ridgway, formerly lived down by Adams Mill and is well known in Coshocton.

Henry C. Niles, Pennsylvania.

Samuel S. Fels, Philadelphia manufacturer.

Howard Evans, Philadelphia manufacturer.

These are all men who feel that they cannot support President Taft but who believe in the preservation of the Republican party. They also believe that Woodrow Wilson, Progressive Democrat, is the best fitted of the three candidates now before the American people, for President of the United States.

It is just two weeks from today till the election, but the Republican campaign is still too weak to make a respectable showing.

The three men nominated for the office of County Commissioner this year have never held any county office. They are new men before the people in that regard, but they are fully competent in every respect for the duties that will be entrusted to them by their election. They are familiar with the people's needs and they possess the qualification to properly transact the county's business in such a manner as to accomplish the best results at the most moderate expense to the tax payers. In providing for necessary public improvements they pledge themselves to a uniform policy of honesty and economy. It can be relied upon with certainty that they will not in any event be found using the county's money or patronage to secure votes to keep themselves in office, in the name of purity and self-righteousness, as was done by a former Republican administration.

FORECAST OF THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD

The Chicago Record-Herald's presidential forecast makes the following showing of the electoral votes of the states:

For Wilson—Thirty-five states
total electoral vote	429
For Roosevelt—Seven states,
total electoral vote	78
For Taft—Three states, total
electoral vote	17
Doubtful—Three states, total
electoral vote	13
Total electoral college	521
Necessary to elect	269

The claim is made by Taft leaders that the cost of living will go down after he shall have been re-elected. But why doesn't the cost go down now while Taft is in office? And why has the cost gone up so high during the time Taft has been in office? These are the questions the voters are asking and want answered.

It is settled that the Mormon church is a bulwark of the Republican party in this campaign and that the four electoral votes of Utah are solidly in the Taft column. He is more certain of them than the electoral vote of any state in the Union.

MEN PYGAMIES AS COMPARED WITH ISSUES IN THIS CAMPAIGN

Woodrow Wilson's Speech at Denver.

"As I was coming out west a friend of mine, who was a westerner, said: 'Governor, you have been too polite. We western people like punch in our speeches. Now give it to the other fellows. Don't spare them.' But I tell you frankly I am not interested in hitting other people. Why, every man concerned in this great contest is a pygmy as compared with the issues.

What difference does Mr. Taft's record make to me? What difference does Mr. Roosevelt's career so far make to me? What difference does my own character, what do my own attainments—whatever they may be—make in the presence of these tremendous issues of life? I tell you truly I cannot afford to think about Mr. Taft or Mr. Roosevelt when I am thinking about the fortunes of the people of the United States. What is punch in a speech compared with that immortal vision that the American people once had of liberty and equality. What are men as compared with the standards of righteousness? What is this generation when measured by the standards that will or will not perpetuate the great policy set up in America?"

Good Dog.
"Paid a thousand marks for the dog, did you? It ought to be well bred at that price."
"I can only tell you that I wish I had a pedigree like his, that's all."—Fitzedee Blagter.

BERT O. HORTON

BERT O. HORTON

One of Licking county's most aggressive young men, who is deserving of the preferment he seeks from the voters of this county, is Bert O. Horton, candidate on the Democratic ticket for the office of clerk of the courts. It would indeed be difficult to find a man better qualified, by means of natural talents and ability, to fill this important office, and it is pleasant to note the general assurance throughout all parts of the county in Mr. Horton's selection. The candidate is, in the first place, a native of Licking county, and, consequently, well informed upon the ideals of the people of its various sections. A resident of Newton township during the earlier years of his life, he came to Newark about eleven years ago, and has been identified with various reliable institutions since that time, meeting with the favor of all with whom he came in contact, and winning the last friendship of all who knew him. As cashier of the United States Express Company, later keeper of the corporation books of the Wehrle Company, and as clerk of the board of appraisers, Mr. Horton demonstrated his ability as a conceptive business man, one well versed in the requirements of legitimate business and its records. His appointment to the office of deputy state inspector of oils for the counties of Licking, Coshocton and Knox by Governor Harmon, met with the sincere commendation of all concerned, and in this office he has again showed that the confidence of his friends has not been misplaced.

Politically, Mr. Horton is a staunch Democrat, and one of the ablest defenders of its principles. He was first active in county affairs in the campaign of 1898, when he was secretary of the Bryan Club in this city and identified with its successes throughout the county. He was also chosen as the first secretary of the present Licking Democratic Club, an office which he filled with pleasing success. In his personal and social affairs, Mr. Horton has not been found wanting. He is a member of the Central Church of Christ and has been prominent in its councils. He has not been unmindful of his duty to his fellow man and has imbued within him the fraternal spirit of the Knights of Pythias, Red Men and the Modern Woodmen of America, orders in which he is accorded the heartiest recognition by his fellow members.

An Important Swine Point.
A point which the less thoughtful pig breeder frequently overlooks in the selection of the young sow pig for breeding purposes is that it should be descended from a sow or preferably from a line of sows which have been in the habit of continuing to give a good supply of milk for a term of eight weeks at least after farrowing.

Note—Names of all candidates for judicial positions will be printed on a separate, non-partisan ballot, without party emblem or designation of any sort. The voter must place an X in front of the name of each candidate for whom he desires to vote. The Democratic candidates are:

HOW TO VOTE THE JUDICIAL TICKET

DEPARTMENT TO SEND AN AGENT TO NEWARK SOON
For Purpose of Examining Sherwood Site and Considering Others Before Proceeding.

When the news came to the Advocate last week that the government's contract with Mr. McCarthy of Philadelphia for erecting Newark's federal building upon the Sherwood site had been cancelled and that the government intended to look further into the question of sites, the Advocate wrote to Hon. Sherman Allen, assistant secretary of the Treasury at Washington inquiring why the McCarthy contract had been cancelled and asking what further steps the government would take before proceeding with the work of construction.

Mr. Allen writes that the Department recognizes the interest of the citizens of Newark in their new public building and was reluctant to cause even the slight delay which the cancellation of the contract made necessary. Mr. Allen says, too, that it is the purpose of the Department to send within a few days another agent to make an investigation of the Sherwood site which the government now owns. In view of objections to the Sherwood site it was deemed proper in fairness to all the people of Newark to delay a sufficient time to make a re-investigation of the matter which is to be done promptly.

JAMES BROUGHTON MEMBER OF SOLES

One of the unique and attractive exhibits in the recent industrial parade given by Newark business men in connection with the County Fair was that of James Broughton, member of soles, 6 Arcade Annex.

Mr. Broughton is a shoemaker who understands his business. He knows the difference between good and inferior leather and one reason for his success is that he buys only the very best stock with which to repair shoes. People who have tried it know that a pair of shoes "fixed" by Broughton are as good as new.

Broughton's prices are right and he makes quick delivery. He is located right in the heart of the city, only a step from the public square and the Arcade proper.

With modern machinery, the best of leather, prompt and courteous attention to customers and right prices, James Broughton invites a share of your patronage. (Adv.)

RAIN STOPS RACES AT THE PARK

The rain man put the "kibosh" on the first day's program of the fall race meeting at Moundbuilders' park Tuesday afternoon. The slight rain in the morning did little damage to the track but the heavier fall at noon made it impossible to start the first day's events.

Secretary J. F. Flanigan announced at 1 o'clock that the program would be delayed but one day. The races set for Tuesday afternoon will be run on Wednesday.

Wednesday the races will be started at 12:30 o'clock and an effort will be made to run at least one of the races set for Wednesday.

The Best Cough Syrup is Easily Made at Home

Costs Little and Acts Quickly. Money Returned if it Fails.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup, and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It stops obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—in a hurry, and is splendid for sore lungs, asthma, croup, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, in guaiacol and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this recipe, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe. This plan has often been imitated, but the old, successful formula has never been equalled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Price" Tomorrow Night.
"The Price" will be seen at the Auditorium tomorrow night, with an emotional actress of excellent repute playing the stellar role of Ethel Toscani. The engagement will be for just one performance. This modern drama by George Broadhurst, enjoyed great popularity at the Hudson Theatre, New York, all last fall. Its story of the penalty a woman must always pay for a misstep is an old one, but Playwright Broadhurst is said to treat it in a new light. Its principal characters run the entire gamut of emotion—love, hate, jealousy, jealousy, trust, suspicion, all are bound together, just as in everyday happenings with everyday folk.

"Madame Sherry."
The extraordinary popularity of "Madame Sherry," which comes to the Auditorium Thursday, Oct. 24, is undoubtedly due to the infectious melody, "Every Little Movement" so industriously employed from the rise of the curtain to its final fall. It is certainly tuneful, seductive, irresistible, and it is worked into the piece with some skill and builds up many a dancing effect. The dancing, too, is a large element of the production and is extremely attractive, although at times it is somewhat suggestive of the sensational. "The Birth of the Butterfly" in the first act, sung by Yvonne and a number of young women, is very pretty and, in addition to the various dancing incidents suggested by "Every Little Movement," there is also an elaborate dance near the end of the second act used as a plot expedient. More dances of various characters are introduced throughout the piece by the different participants in the comedy.

Carrie Webber's Dresses.
Miss Carrie Webber, the leading woman in the 1912 edition of "Busy Izzy," which will be seen here Friday evening, with George Sidney as the star, is noted for her taste in dress. She is also interesting on account of her versatility. Miss Webber is a character actress, and has the sense of character well developed. For instance, she is seen in the opening act of "Busy Izzy" as an Italian organ grinder. She wears the Neapolitan garb and talks the Italian lingo with all the gusto of the real picturesque figure of the street.

But in the second act Miss Webber reveals a totally different aspect. In this she is seen as a society belle. She wears Parisian creations as for the manor born. And well she may for she has a superb figure, and she is a woman of great beauty. In the present production Miss Webber is seen in some particularly elegant creations of the dressmaker's art. She went to Paris this summer and while there she obtained some of the latest patterns and the most recent creations of the artists in dress. She is one of the most beautiful in design that has been seen on the stage this season and is down to the very minute as to style and mode.

Those who see Miss Webber in "Busy Izzy" will not only have a hearty laugh at her comedy in the first act, but will be treated to a sight of the most modish gowning of the season.
Miss Webber has had wide experience on the stage, and has created numerous important roles, but it is in "Busy Izzy" that she appears to the best advantage. Seats on sale tomorrow.

"The Girl and the Outlaw."
Bert Mosher will present "The Girl and the Outlaw" at the Auditorium theatre with the successful young player, Roy La Marr. The story of the play is founded around a young man whose ambition in life from childhood is to become a desperado. His years of wishing for such a life is granted, but only to find himself in the lowest depths of crime and disgrace. A young school teacher comes into his life, who afterwards is discovered to be his own sister. Here is where she proves what love and a girl can do. By her sweet ways and smiles, she leads him from the cowardly life he craved, to enter into better paths. The company carries everything to present this play as it is promised. An evening watching "The Girl and the Outlaw" will never be forgotten.

Words of Praise for "The Price"

(East Liverpool Tribune.)
"The Price," the title of the performance at the Ceramic theatre last evening, is indeed well named, for it was not only worth twice the price of admission, but what is more, it was presented in a manner that no woman who witnessed this excellent performance will by any possible chance forget that it is human to err, but more human to forgive.
From a moral standpoint the lesson taught has not been excelled in any similar production at the local house. It demonstrated beyond a doubt that deception in any form does not pay, and that no matter how well one may attempt to conceal the skeleton in one's closet, that chance or misfortune will reveal the truth at an inopportune moment, causing havoc, whereas, the truth in the first instance would have spared heart-breaking moments and hours of anxiety.

The acting of Miss Edna Marshall as the mistress and wife was superb in every respect. In the heavy scenes, which left not a dry eye in the audience, she demonstrated that she was one of the most capable performers that has ever graced the Ceramic theatre stage.

George V. Dill, as the husband, was likewise an excellent performer and materially assisted in making the big scenes of the production soul-stirring throughout. The acting of Catherine C. Bennett, as the artist's wife, who had been betrayed by the latter's secretary, was as perfect a piece of acting as could be possible. The same applies to the performance of Clarence Bennett, who played the part of the professor, who aided the young wife with kindly, although not always wise, words of advice.

In its entirety, the play was well staged, well acted, and each individual character is deserving of credit for the perfection which dominated throughout the action of "The Price."

The Orpheum Theatre.

The Orpheum theatre played to capacity business Monday evening, and the patrons were well pleased with the show.

The Aerial Wilsons have some very clever tricks on the trapeze and bars. These little people make a good appearance and are well received by their audience.

The act of Brown and Brown is only fair, as the male part of the act overworks himself in every way and spoils his own act.

Will Pierson, Chinese impersonator, is only fair.

The scream of the bill is the Star Trio, with their funny songs and dances. This little act is filled with good laughs and good songs, with plenty of life and fun.

The bill, a part of which is very good, is well worth the price of admission.

store in Lexington, Ky., shot the proprietor, H. Tannehill, who spent several months in a hospital from the wound, and made off with a large quantity of boot, in a taxicab. Several months after James J. Jamison, the original automobile bandit, was arrested and sent to Sing Sing for 20 years. Soon after began the amazing exploits of the motor car gangs of Paris, who looted and killed without compunction, and who were able for months with the aid of speedy cars, to escape the clutches of the law. In days throughout Europe and America the automobile became an accessory to criminal operations, the most recent instance being the use of a "murder car" by the assassins of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, who was killed for "squealing."

The proof of the matter is in his failure to make good.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Corpuscular of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germ must be washed out, and so for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.
The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. "This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema."

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.
In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.

ENTHUSIASM AT THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETINGS

A big Democratic rally was held in the township hall at Jackson town Monday evening the building was crowded to the walls. Enthusiasm was rampant and the Licking township fillers of the soil as well as the citizens of the village turned out en masse to hear the speakers of the evening, Messrs. James R. Fitzgibbon, Henry Keller, Ed M. Larson, B. F. McDonald and W. D. Fulton. The speakers were at their best and elicited great applause during their expounding of Democratic principles. Every mention of the name of the Democratic presidential nominee, Gov. Woodrow Wilson, was heartily cheered and the spirit of the meeting proved beyond all peradventure that the voters are aroused as never before and that they intend to vote almost as a unit for the progressive Democratic candidate who believes in doing things, and who will bring about reforms that will assist materially in the welfare of all communities and all sections of the country.

One of the pleasing events of the evening was the presence of Miss Bettie Jones, who attended, bringing with her the entire scholarship of her school.

Rocky Fork Meeting.

There was a good attendance of Democrats at the Monday night meeting at the Rocky Fork school house and all evinced a lively interest in the discussion of matters political as propounded by the various speakers on the program.

Those who addressed the meeting were J. Howard Jones, candidate for prosecuting attorney; Probate Judge Robbins Hunter, candidate for re-election; Bert O. Horton, candidate for clerk of courts; ex-Sheriff William H. Anderson and Attorney Henry C. Ashcraft.

Health and Beauty Answers.
BY MRS. MAE MARTIN.

A. F. S.: To be sure, health and beauty go hand in hand. Indigestion and sluggish liver cause impure blood, which in turn breeds ugly blotches, pimples and skin eruptions, accompanied often by depression, melancholia and headache. To restore the complexion by the judicious use of a simple home-made system- tonic and blood purifier, made as follows: Dissolve one ounce of galeene and one-half cup of sugar in one-half pint alcohol (not whiskey), then add enough hot water to make a full quart of the remedy. Take a tablespoonful before each meal. Karsene stimulates the digestion, arouses a torpid liver, purifies the blood and gives tone to the whole system. By a natural process the complexion is cleared, the "tired feeling" vanishes, and energy and enjoyment of life return.

Mrs. O.: You can make your eyebrows grow thick and glossy by applying pyroxin with finger-end. For stubby eye-lashes, apply pyroxin with thumb and forefinger. This makes them grow long and curly. Be careful, however, not to get pyroxin where no hair is wanted.

A. B. C.: Bleaching the hair will not remove it. Make a thick paste with powdered dandelion roots, either in two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and hair with soap and water. This simple treatment will banish the most stubborn growth and does not injure even a sensitive skin.

G. E. A.: It may be all right to use dry shampoo powder where you are very careful to brush out all of the powder; otherwise it will clog up the pores in the scalp and cause dandruff, the very thing you should avoid. To keep your hair looking bright and healthy and make it stay in curl, you must not use a shampoo that contains soap. Use a shampoo that contains cantharox in a cup of hot water and you have a shampoo that can't be excelled. It will remove all dirt and oil, and leave your scalp free from irritation. This shampoo dries quickly without causing streaky, faded patches in the hair. It will make your hair soft and fluffy so it will stay up and look nice without the use of a hair net or veil.

Lorris: If you wish to make a greasiness complexion cream-jelly that will quickly clear your complexion of freckles, tan and sunburn without the necessity of several months' treatment, you can easily prepare it at home. Mix together an ounce of honey, two teaspoonfuls glycerine and one-half pint cold water; stir briskly and let stand over night. Where applied frequently for removing wrinkles, blackheads, freckles, roughness and other skin blemishes. It will leave the skin soft, clear and velvety, and is a matchless preparation for massaging and reducing the size of large pores in the skin.

E. B. S.: Although gray hair is something caused by worry, it is generally due to a diseased scalp as indicated by such symptoms as the dandruff, itching scalp and brittle, falling hair of which you speak. To restore your scalp to a healthy condition, first keep it clean by shampooing every ten days or two weeks with cantharox, then massage the scalp, using a good quality hair tonic. You can prepare the tonic yourself by adding one ounce of tincture to a half-pint of alcohol (not whiskey) and a half-pint of cold water. This is much better than most ready-prepared hair-tonics as it contains nothing to make the hair coarse, lanky or "stiff." It will remove the dandruff and stop your hair from coming out. You will find it an ideal dressing for the hair and very refreshing to an itching scalp.

E. M. D.: Do not let your supercilious flesh work you. Even though you have spent many dollars trying different so-called "flesh-reducers" without any of them doing a bit of good, I want you to try this one. I have many friends who tell me it does wonders for them. Get four ounces of parrotin from any drug store, dissolve it in two cups of water and take a tablespoonful a few minutes before each meal. It is harmless and will cut down your fat rapidly without necessity for dieting or strenuous exercising.

Mary K.: By devoting just a little time each day to the care of your complexion, you can ward off the marks of approaching age and have the same attractive, youthful-looking, healthy and glowing skin. Use a good, greasiness complexion cream (see answer to Norris), and instead of clogging up the pores of your skin with face powder, use a dependable lotion and use it exclusively. You can make such a lotion by buying four ounces of glycerine at your druggist's and dissolving it in one-half pint of witch hazel or hot water; then add two teaspoonfuls glycerine and when cold, apply freely to your face, neck and arms. This lotion is inexpensive and unequaled as a skin-beautifier. It will remove all dirt and oil, and leave your skin soft and fluffy so it will stay up and look nice without the use of a hair net or veil.

B. W.: If my eyes continually had that tired, overworked feeling you say yours do I would lose no time getting a good tonic for them. My eyes were inclined to be weak but I kept them in good shape by using a simple, inexpensive remedy made by dissolving an ounce of crystals in a pint of water. A few drops in each eye occasionally will readily relieve inflammation and make one's eyes bright and sparkling. Try this and I am sure you will not need to pass up any splendid tonic for weak, watery eyes. It is granulated lids.

You Can Have Strong Nerves

If you are a nervous sufferer and are willing to help yourself there is no reason to become discouraged.

Good, pure blood, fresh air, nourishing food and a fair observance of the laws of health are all that you need to restore the strength and health of your nerves. Live up to these conditions and the nerves, brain, stomach, kidneys, heart and liver will keep in perfect working order. It is not new nerve tissue that is needed, but plenty of nourishment. Anything that you can do to build up your general health will strengthen your nerves. You will find Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People the greatest help. Free from any harmful or habit-forming drug, they start to work at once cleansing and enriching the blood, strengthening the stomach and carrying nourishment to every nerve, tissue and tiny cell throughout the body. Why not choose health now by giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a thorough trial?

Mrs. P. G. Gardner, of No. 3 Seely street, Adrian, Mich., says: "I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after I had given up all hope of ever having my strength back again. I became run down through overwork and worry. I was in bed and helpless for two weeks. My limbs from my knees down felt numb and I had no use of them. I had terrible pains in the top of my head and creeping sensations in the back of the neck. All summer and fall I doctored. We gave up housekeeping and boarded, as I thought I would gain faster, yet many mornings I could not go to breakfast for I would wake up feeling so faint and light-headed. Then I made up my mind to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began with them and gradually increased the dose until I was taking three pills after each meal. I used the pills until my nerves were steady, my appetite and sleep good and I felt entirely well. My daughter has since taken the pills for thin blood and poor color with good results."

Write for the free booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are highly recommended for neurasthenia or nervous debility, neuralgia, sciatica, nervous headaches and St. Vitus' dance.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

DEFENSE HAS RESTED IN THE BECKER CASE

New York, Oct. 22.—The defense in the trial of Charles F. Becker, for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, rested its case a few moments after noon today, without calling Becker to the stand.

No sooner, however, had the state evidenced its intention to close its case when Justice Goss, taking matters in his own hand, reopened the testimony and asked that Jack Sullivan be recalled to the stand.

"There were certain questions put by the defense to this witness which I excluded before. I now permit you to put those questions," he said to John F. McIntyre, Becker's chief counsel. McIntyre said he declined to put the questions, as he preferred to let the case stand as it was.

"Then I direct the district attorney to ask the witness these questions, in the interest of the defense," commanded Justice Goss.

Mr. McIntyre's vigorous objections were disregarded.

Sullivan said that Webber offered him money if he would "swear to lies that would put Becker behind the bars."

"I told him I didn't have the price when it came to swearing a man's life away," said Sullivan.

This testimony was introduced to show that the gun men had attempted to "frame up" against Becker.

WILL FIGHT AN IMPORTANT BATTLE SOON

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The armies of Servia, Bulgaria and Greece continue to clear their way to the main objective points of their attacks, the Turkish fortress of Uskup, Adrianople and Servia. The last of these is a Turkish town on the Grecian frontier.

The Greek armies have crossed the frontier at two points in Epirus. At the western end they are occupying the heights of Crimbuvo, while at the eastern end they are pursuing the Turkish troops toward Servia, where an important battle is expected to be fought and the taking of which by the Greeks would carry them appreciably nearer to the Monastir and Salaniki roads.

The Servians have retained their possession of the mountain passes.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 22.—The four Servian armies are advancing slowly into Turkish territory. The Servian troops today captured the outlying positions near Uskup and an attempt to take the town itself is expected daily.

Berlin, October 22.—Two hundred Turkish soldiers were killed and as many more wounded by the derailling of a military train on the railroad from Smyrna to Aiden, it is said in a special news dispatch from Constantinople. The entire train fell over a steep embankment.

AUNT SALLY'S ADVICE TO BEAUTY SEEKERS

Red Nose. The nose is a more delicate organ than most people imagine. It should be touched as little as possible. For undue redness the treatment recommended in following paragraph will be found effective. Apply without rubbing.

Muddy Skin. The sanest, safest and surest method of giving a clear, healthy, transparent appearance to the complexion is to apply ordinary mercerized wax every night for from one to two weeks. This wax, obtainable at any drug store (one ounce is sufficient), actually takes off a bad complexion by gently and gradually absorbing the thin veil of surface skin. The new skin then in evidence is as fresh and velvety as a young girl's. The wax is applied like cold cream and washed off morning.

Wrinkles. A harmless lotion made as follows has been found very effective in removing wrinkles and flabbiness. Powdered saffron, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 3/4 pint. Rub the face in this occasionally.—Woman's Realm.

CHILDREN HATE CASTOR OIL, UGH!

Delicious "Syrup of Figs" Best For Their Little Stomachs, Liver and Waste-Clogged Bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the jolly that mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. The day of harsh physic is over. We don't force the liver and 30 feet of bowels now; we coax them. We have no dreaded after effects. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their little stomachs and tender bowels are tired by them.

If your child is fretful, peevish, half sick, stomach sour, breath feverish and its little system full of cold; has diarrhoea, sore throat, stomach ache; doesn't eat or rest well—remember—look at the tongue. If coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, then don't worry, because you surely will have a well, smiling child in a few hours.

Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics simply cannot be harmful. It sweetens the stomach, makes the liver active and thoroughly cleanses the little ones' waste clogged bowels. In a few hours all sour bile, undigested fermenting food and constipated waste matter gently moves on and out of the system without griping or nausea.

Directions for children of all ages, also for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

By all means get the genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna" prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. Accept nothing else.

THE BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Do not be too quick to give support to the schemes of others. It will be more profitable for you to consider a proposition without prejudice and to decide on it according to reason, regardless of opinion. If you are employed you should be especially careful in the near future.

Those born today will be too generous for their own welfare and their ill-considered gifts may cause some people to avoid them, who would otherwise be their best friends. Their early training should be to look to the future and to balance generosity with judgment.

LIBRARY

scribed the strange fascination of certain books on the lives of individuals, in that they create the assurance that they are "books that are friends for life" and great factors in the revelation of all that life means. Herbert Hirschberg, reference librarian of the Cleveland Public Library, also appeared on the morning program, giving a capable dissertation on the value of reference departments and the proper management of this most important phase of library work. Mr. Hirschberg's experience gives him authority in his statements and his views cannot but prove valuable to the librarians of this and other cities.

It was intended to take the visitors to various points of interest in the vicinity of Newark this afternoon, but the inclemency of the weather precluded this pleasure.

Education Educator Tonight. Citizens of Newark will have an opportunity this evening of hearing one of the most prominent educators in the east at the High school auditorium when Dr. F. L. Heeter, for many years superintendent of schools in Pittsburgh, Pa., will deliver his address on "Old Fashioned and New Fashioned Education." This should demand the attention of everyone interested in educational matters, and while it pertains only in a few phases to the work of the state librarians, its general excellence is such that the librarians are to be congratulated upon their selection of this eminent speaker. Dr. Heeter's address is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Tuesday afternoon the delegation went to Granville on a special car over the Ohio Electric, which left this city at 2:50, running as a separate section of the regular train. While in the college town the delegates were the guests of the faculty of Shepardson college and were tendered a reception in Stone Hall on the campus.

Owing to the rain this afternoon, the automobile trip planned by the Board of Trade was postponed until tomorrow at 2 o'clock. The forty odd automobile owners who graciously offered the use of their cars for this afternoon are requested to take or send their machines to Trinity Parish house tomorrow at 2 at which time the Library visitors are to be given a ride to the Country Club and elsewhere about town.

A companion of the victim was also struck by Craft when she attempted to interfere in his attack on the girl.

Craft was arrested by Patrolman Heck and lodged in jail on a charge of assault. In police court Tuesday morning he was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to jail for 30 days.

WATER RENTALS MUST BE PAID

Service Director McCarthy is having his troubles these days with water consumers whose accounts have become delinquent. According to the department's rules the service to delinquents is discontinued after a certain time and this is what has caused the trouble. Negligent citizens have failed to give their attention to notices sent out by the department and as a result service was shut off in many instances. The irate citizens immediately took time which they could not spare before and called at the water works office. As a result some of them gave vent to their anger, but cooled off considerably when they wound the water works officials firm in their stand that the city must be paid for water service.
